

Print-ready images and prayers (double-sided) to cut out

RECTO

Print-ready
images and
prayers (double-sided) to
cut out

VERSO

O Creator,
you invite us to join the joyful circle of your Creation. The First Nations medicine wheel represents it. May it help us enter your circle of life.

We bring before you,
our many circles of relationships,
as an offering and a call.
Bless them all,
and especially the most fragile ones.

O Creator,
look upon the innermost circle of our relationship with ourselves,
which is sometimes uncertain and fragile.
Make it right and peaceful.

Turn also your gaze toward the vital circle of our relationship with nature.

O Creator,
you invite us to join the joyful circle of your Creation. The First Nations medicine wheel
represents it. May it help us enter your circle of life.

We bring before you,
our many circles of relationships,
as an offering and a call.
Bless them all,
and especially the most fragile ones.

O Creator,
look upon the innermost circle of our
relationship with ourselves,
which is sometimes uncertain and fragile.
Make it right and peaceful.

Turn also your gaze toward the vital circle of
our relationship with nature.

O Creator,
you invite us to join the joyful circle of your Creation. The First Nations medicine wheel
represents it. May it help us enter your
circle of life.

We bring before you,
our many circles of relationships,
as an offering and a call.
Bless them all,
and especially the most fragile ones.

O Creator,
look upon the innermost circle of our
relationship with ourselves,
which is sometimes uncertain and fragile.
Make it right and peaceful.

Turn also your gaze toward the vital circle of
our relationship with nature.

May the Indigenous wisdom rooted in the land guide us toward a humble and loving respect for it.

Fill our family circles with your tenderness.
Nourish them with the wisdom, compassion, and tolerance of the elders. And come heal all wounded family relationships.

Ground the broad circles of our social relationships in truth, authenticity, and generosity. May they flourish, so that we may dare to experience a true encounter between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples.

O you, our Creator,
hold our relationships close to your heart,
in the intimacy of your eternal love. Amen.

Anne-Marie Chapleau and Marie-Josée Poiré

May the Indigenous wisdom rooted in the
land guide us toward a humble and loving
respect for it.

Fill our family circles with your tenderness.
Nourish them with the wisdom, compassion,
and tolerance of the elders. And come heal
all wounded family relationships.

Ground the broad circles of our social
relationships in truth, authenticity, and
generosity. May they flourish, so that we
may dare to experience a true encounter
between Indigenous and non-Indigenous
peoples.

O you, our Creator,
hold our relationships close to your heart,
in the intimacy of your eternal love. Amen.

Anne-Marie Chapleau and Marie-Josée Poiré

May the Indigenous wisdom rooted in the
land guide us toward a humble and loving
respect for it.

Fill our family circles with your tenderness.
Nourish them with the wisdom, compassion,
and tolerance of the elders. And come heal
all wounded family relationships.

Ground the broad circles of our social
relationships in truth, authenticity, and
generosity. May they flourish, so that we
may dare to experience a true encounter between Indigenous and non-Indigenous
peoples.

O you, our Creator,
hold our relationships close to your heart,
in the intimacy of your eternal love. Amen.

Anne-Marie Chapleau and Marie-Josée Poiré